VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Expresar gratitud es una señal de un corazón amoroso. Cuando hemos recibido un gesto de gracia, la apreciación experimentada forma un vínculo entre el que da y el que recibe. Esto solo puede suceder cuando la abundancia y los gestos amables se ven como regalos y no como algo a lo que tenemos derecho. El poder de la gratitud es más profundo cuando nos damos cuenta de que todo lo que somos y todo lo que se nos da no tiene una fuente humana, sino que es de Dios. Caminar creyendo que nuestro vaso está medio lleno nos deja siempre con ganas de más. Nunca estamos satisfechos. Nos convertimos en nada más que perseguidores con derecho sobre cualquier cosa que podamos conseguir. En cambio, el que está ansioso por contar sus bendiciones y apreciar la maravilla y la belleza del regalo de la vida misma está en paz. Antes de dar otro paso o aventurarse en otro viaje, se inclinan en agradecimiento ante la presencia de Dios mismo. Son muy conscientes de que todo dejaría de existir sin Dios.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Expressing gratitude is a sign of a loving heart. When we have received a gracious gesture, the appreciation experienced forms a bond between the giver and receiver. This can only happen when abundance and kind gestures are seen as gifts and not something to which we are entitled. The power of gratitude is more profound when we realize all that we are and all we are given do not have a human source but are of God. Walking around believing that our glass is only half full leaves us always wanting more. We are never satisfied. We become nothing more than entitled pursuers of whatever we can get. Instead, the one who is eager to count their blessings and appreciate the wonder and beauty of the gift of life itself is at peace. Before they take another step or venture off on another journey, they bow in gratitude to the presence of God himself. They are most keenly aware that all would cease to be without God. ©LPi
