Medical Centers or working in the federal government beyond U.S. borders—including those from our own parish and diocese. Including families, AMS priests and deacons serve approximately 1.8 million Catholics who hail from 50 states and U.S. territories. While the salaries and retirement of Catholic military chaplains are paid by the U.S. Government, the AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military for programs and administrative costs. QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Wisdom teaches us that the Lord mercifully and lovingly awaits us to stop sinning and return to Him. What behaviors in your life are holding you back from a deeper relationship with Jesus?

Second Reading:

Paul is concerned that the believers in the city of Thessalonica are being misled by others about the second coming of Christ. What do you think is an effective way to address any messages that belittle or disregard our beliefs?

Gospel:

Jesus sees in Zacchaeus, the chief tax collector, an opportunity to teach the crowds that as the Son of Man, he has "come to seek and to save what was lost." Are you included in that description? How does that make you feel?

Jesús ve en Zaqueo, el jefe de los recaudadores de impuestos, una oportunidad para enseñar a las multitudes que, como Hijo de Hombre, "ha venido a buscar y salvar lo que se había perdido." ¿Estás tú incluido en esa descripción? ¿Cómo te hace sentir eso?
